

DJAJIJO (Dj) M. BOLA
SAGE Scholar

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Nutritional Science in Human Physiology and Metabolism
University of California, Berkeley (Expected graduation May 2011)

HIGHLIGHTS OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Superb listener and communicator
- Impeccable time management facilitates ability to complete projects and objectives efficiently
- Exceptional verbal and written communication skills, Capable of quickly generating ideas and expressing my thoughts
- Systematize goals and objectives in order to maximize opportunity cost with high rates of success

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

COMMUNICATION

- Patiently and actively listened to fifty junior college students' mathematics and nutritional science questions in which I facilitated their learning by motivating them to be creative in articulating the concepts to each other
- Managed communications with over sixty high school students and mentors for a low-income college access program by generating progress reports through phone and email conversations
- Provided mentor support to three low-income high school students by guiding them through the college application process in which each of them is currently attending college and the first in their families to experience college

MANAGEMENT & SUPERVISION

- Developed and administered study skills workshops for over 160 high school students during a college summer intensive program in which 90% of the students that participated in the workshop matriculated to college
- Provided technical support to College of Marin's Biology Department by constructing botany and zoology laboratory experiments

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2006—present	Marin Education Fund, San Rafael, California College Access Intern
2007—2009	College Of Marin Biology Department, Kentfield, California Lab Assistant
2007—2009	College Of Marin Tutoring Center, Kentfield, California Tutor

COMMUNITY SERVICE

2006—present	Fund Raiser Volunteer, Better Africa Foundation
--------------	---